

KAMCHATKA ORGANIC FARM

Kamchatka is a region of pristine countryside, rich in biodiversity thanks, in part, to its abundance of thermal springs and volcanic minerals, with more than 1200 species of plants, many of which are unique to the region. On our organic farm, we grow and extract the power of these valuable plants in a sustainable manner to respect the balance and harmony of nature.

TUNDRA PETALS body cream is a fabulous source of nutrients derived from organic Arctic Rose extract and organic Amaranth oil. This cream gives your skin a feeling of smoothness together with long-lasting suppleness.
Directions: Gently massage into clean, dry skin.
