

KAMCHATKA ORGANIC FARM

Kamchatka is a region of pristine countryside, rich in biodiversity thanks, in part, to its abundance of thermal springs and volcanic minerals, with more than 1200 species of plants, many of which are unique to the region. On our organic farm, we grow and extract the power of these valuable plants in a sustainable manner to respect the balance and harmony of nature.

POLAR ROSE shower gel, containing organic Arctic Rose extract and organic Amaranth oil, gently cleanses, provides long-lasting hydration throughout the day, leaves your skin feeling smooth and tender. Directions: Apply a small amount to wet skin, evenly spread over the body and massage into a rich lather. Rinse with warm water.
